BE THANKFUL AND GRATEFUL

There is always, always, always something to be thankful for!

Being thankful and grateful is when you feel happy inside for something you have, or when someone does something nice for you. We usually say 'thank-you' to show our appreciation for their kindness.

Being thankful and grateful are very important habits for Muslims to have. Allah ﷻ tells us in many parts of the Qur'an to always be grateful for everything He has given us. He also tells us to be thankful to our parents for everything they have done for us as well.

The Most Thankful

الشَّكُور

Did you know that Allah ﷻ is more Thankful than all of His creation?
He accepts and appreciates all that we do for Him, even if it is very small.

In return, we should also be very thankful (and grateful) for everything that Allah ﷻ has blessed us with, even if it is very little or small.
